SUSPECT ARRESTED AFTER STANDOFF

On December 23, 2005, San Antonio Police Officers responded to the 1000 BLK of Riebe Alley for a disturbance. Upon arrival, officers were told that a male and female at the location were having an argument that had escalated and at one point the male suspect said he was going to blow the house up. Officers could smell the odor of gas coming from the residence and immediately called for assistance. Within minutes CPS arrived to cut off the gas to the residence and officers began to communicate with the male suspect. The female victim was able to exit the residence before police arrived. SWAT and SAPD Negotiators made the location and began dealing with the barricaded suspect.

Today, at approximately 3:30 a.m. the suspect was taken into custody after tear gas was deployed in the residence.

The identity of the suspect will be released pending formal charges.

The suspect faces one count of Felony Terroristic Threats.
